I am writing to express my interest in this position. As an experienced full stack web3 developer with a passion for innovation and a drive to make a difference, I believe I would be a valuable asset to your team. With a decade of living/work experience in Asia, I have immersed myself in the culture and languages, gaining proficiency in Chinese, Korean, and Vietnamese. My diverse work experience includes roles in education, such as curriculum development and lecturing, as well as technology-related positions like community management, crypto banking, and coding.

Here's why I believe I am a good fit for your company –

Expertise:

I bring a wealth of technical skills to the table, with a strong command of HTML, JS, and SOL. As a full stack web3 developer, I am well-versed in the latest tools and frameworks, ensuring that I can hit the ground running from day one.

Track Record:

I have co-founded two successful crypto projects, Bank of Nowhere and Rebel Labs, which have achieved considerable success in the industry. These experiences have honed my entrepreneurial spirit and given me a deep understanding of the blockchain ecosystem.

Education and Leadership:

In addition to my technical prowess, I hold a Masters in Education and have served as an educational leader for many years. This unique combination of skills allows me to bridge the gap between technology and education, making me an asset in your company's quest for growth and impact.

I am actively seeking positions where I can:

- Lead a team of talented developers towards groundbreaking achievements.
- Shape the future of a blockchain company through strategic planning and innovative thinking.
- Foster strong relationships with developers and drive community engagement.
- Contribute my technical skills to the development of cutting-edge blockchain solutions.
